

June 28, 1973

Good Morning (Ladies and Gentlemen):

Pursuant to Notice No. 4088, filed with the Code Reviser's Office June 7, 1973, this is the date and time scheduled for a public hearing and to take action concerning the amendment of Rules 32, 48 and 77. Copies of this notice were mailed to the various news media and interested persons. Attachment A set forth the proposed amendments to the rules.

As you will recall, the Board, on March 1, 1973, adopted emergency rules amending Rules 32, 48 and 77 to eliminate the provisos in these rules authorizing 30 days credit on sales of liquor to railroads, after receiving an Attorney General's Opinion dated February 22, 1973 concluding that RCW 66.28.010 prohibited such credit sales. To maintain the rules in the form adopted March 1, 1973 requires official action of the Board to adopt them as permanent rules.

No data, views or arguments have been submitted to the Board in writing. Is there any discussion?

I will entertain a motion that Resolution No. 33 with annexed amended Rules 32, 48 and 77 (WAC 314-16-160, 314-20-090, and 314-24-170) be adopted as permanent rules, be duly filed and published, and become effective operative July 30, 1973.
